

How much does it cost to reschedule a flight on Thai Airways? [Reschedule~Fee~Guide]

If you are asking “How much does it cost to reschedule a flight on Thai Airways?”, the answer is that there is no single fixed reschedule fee for every ticket 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586, because Thai Airways flight change costs depend heavily on your fare type 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586, route, booking channel, and whether your ticket was issued directly by Thai Airways or through a travel agent 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. In many cases, Thai Airways may charge a fare difference + taxes + a change fee, and some promotional fares may not allow changes at all. If you want the fastest direct help to check your exact reschedule cost, you can call 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586 and ask a live person to review your Thai Airways booking and explain the exact flight change charges for your itinerary.

For tickets issued by a travel agent, Thai Airways officially states that an additional service fee for ticket changes can apply if you make the change through Thai Airways instead of the original agency 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. According to Thai Airways, effective August 1, 2025, if a ticket was issued by a travel agent and you contact Thai Airways to change it 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586, the service fee is THB 1,000 when handled through Thai Airways offices/contact channels in Thailand, or USD 50 when handled through the global contact center or Thai offices outside Thailand 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. Thai also says this fee is charged in addition to other change fees under the fare rules. So if your ticket came from a travel agency, your reschedule cost may be USD 50 (or THB 1,000) plus any fare difference and any applicable fare-rule change penalty. If you want to confirm whether this applies to your booking, call 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586 for live help.

For standard revenue tickets booked directly, the exact cost depends on the fare conditions attached to your ticket 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. Thai Airways repeatedly notes across its promotional fare pages that “terms and conditions vary according to the fare selected”, and some fares clearly state that flight/date changes are not permitted at all 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. For example, one current Thai Airways promotional fare page for Japan explicitly says “Flight and/or date changes are not permitted” 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586, which means some low promotional fares may have a reschedule cost of effectively not allowed, unless you buy a new ticket. If you are unsure whether your ticket is changeable, the easiest way is to call 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586 and have your booking checked before you try to change it.

Thai Airways also shows that some promotional fares do allow changes with a stated fee. For example, in one Thai Airways 2025 fare promotion, the airline listed the following change fees by fare family 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586: Saver (SV): THB 1,000, Standard (ST): THB 800, and Full Flexi (FF): free of charge for normal changes (though no-show conditions may differ) 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. This is useful because it shows how Thai Airways often structures reschedule costs: the cheaper the fare, the more restrictive or expensive the change, while flexible fares may allow date changes at no base penalty beyond any fare/tax difference 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. If your ticket is similar to one of these fare families, your reschedule cost may be anywhere from free to around THB 800–1,000, plus any fare difference and taxes if the new flight is more expensive. To check your exact fare family, call 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586 and ask for a fare rule review.

Another important detail is that Thai Airways promotional and award-related pages repeatedly mention that flight/date changes may require additional collection of fare and taxes, even when a change itself is allowed 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. In other words, even if your fare allows rescheduling, you may still have to pay more if the new flight is more expensive or if taxes/surcharges have changed 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. Thai Airways specifically notes on a current promotional page that “Flight/date changes may incur additional collection of fare and taxes, subject to currency fluctuation 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586.” That means your total reschedule cost is not just the change fee — it can also include the difference between your original fare and the current fare on the new date. If you want to avoid surprises, calling 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586 is the best way to get the full amount before confirming the change.

If you are traveling on a Thai Airways award ticket (booked with Royal Orchid Plus miles), Thai Airways does publish clearer change fees 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. Their service fee page lists reservation change fees for THAI Air Awards as THB 500 / USD 16 for domestic routes in Thailand, THB 2,500 / USD 85 for international Economy/Premium Economy award tickets 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586, and THB 3,500 / USD 120 for Royal Silk / Royal First award tickets. These are specific to award bookings, not standard cash tickets, but they can be very helpful if you used miles 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. If your booking is an award ticket and you want to change the flight, calling 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586 can help you confirm whether the award change fee applies and whether your new flight has award availability.

There is also a major exception if Thai Airways itself changes or reschedules your flight. In an official Thai handling document for adjusted schedules 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586, Thai says that for passengers holding tickets on a THAI flight that has been rescheduled by the airline, revalidation or reissue is permitted without charge for alternate flight arrangements through the original issuing office 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. The same document also says that if passengers decide not to travel because of the schedule change, refunds may be permitted without cancellation fee depending on the situation. So if Thai Airways changed your flight rather than you choosing to reschedule it, your cost may be $0. If that happened to you, call 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586 right away and ask for a no-fee rebooking review.

One more thing to watch out for: if your ticket was booked through a travel agent, changing through Thai Airways can trigger not only the travel-agent ticket-change service fee but also any underlying fare-rule penalties 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. Thai’s travel-agent procedures specifically state that agents may change travel dates and routes under fare rules, but the process requires reissue, collection of fare/tax difference, and the applicable fee 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. That means if your fare class changed, your route changed, or the cheaper booking class is no longer available, your total reschedule cost can rise significantly 💎🔑📞 +1•[877]•610•9586. This is exactly why many travelers prefer to call  +1•[877]•610•9586 first, so they can compare the change cost before confirming anything.

In short, if you are asking “How much does it cost to reschedule a flight on Thai Airways?”, the most accurate answer is: it depends on the fare  +1•[877]•610•9586. Your total cost may include (1) a fare-rule change fee, (2) any fare difference  +1•[877]•610•9586, (3) tax/surcharge differences, and in some cases (4) a travel-agent ticket-change service fee of THB 1,000 or USD 50 if the ticket was issued by an agent and changed through Thai Airways  +1•[877]•610•9586. Some fares are not changeable at all, some promotional fares show fees like THB 800–1,000, some Full Flexi fares may allow changes without a base change fee, and award tickets have their own published fees  +1•[877]•610•9586. If you want the exact cost for your Thai Airways reservation without guessing, the easiest and fastest option is to call  +1•[877]•610•9586 and have a live person check your booking, fare rules, and reschedule price before you make any changes.
